EXPRESS TRAIN HURLED IN DITCH BY PLOTTERS

EVIDENCE SEIZED IN CHICAGO

Documents Found in Probe of Wreck at Gary

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Early morning examination of papers and correspondence seized in a raid late last night on the offices of the Trades Union Educational League, which is headed by William Z. Foster, who recently was deported from Colorado as one of the foremost radical leaders of America, barred widespread "one big union" propaganda among railroad workers and gave valuable information concerning a systematic series of radical meetings in railroad centers, according to State's Attorney Crowe.

No arrests were made but a long list of names of radical leaders was unearthed, Mr. Crowe announced.

WRECK OF TRAIN

The state's attorney's investigation began immediately after receipt here of the report of the Michigan central wreck at Gary, Ind., in which two men were killed and two injured and the discovery of two sticks of dynamite on the Pennsylvania tracks.

Railroad officials said that the Michigan Central express train had been deliberately ditched by plotters. Spikes were removed from ties and rails loosened, they said.

Reports of a dozen meetings, announced by Foster in cities of the middle-west were received, the state's attorney said.

Detectives at the league's offices, seized letter files, card index books, pamphlets and pictures of Lenin and Trotsky, Soviet leaders of Russia. The evidence included a complete list of meetings held by Foster, the index said.

"LIBERATE MURDER"

Foster is said to have come to Chicago following his expulsion from Colorado. State's Attorney Crowe said:

"We raided his office following an investigation of a premeditated train wreck and deliberate murder of two union workmen on the Michigan Central railroad at Gary.

"Yesterday two sticks of dynamite were found on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks in Chicago by a policeman."

Detectives questioned numerous strikers today in the search for clues.

A reward of $1,000 was offered by Henry Sherer, general superintendent of the road, for the arrest of persons responsible for the wreck.

The road was torn up so badly officials said it was impossible to determine how many rails had been loosened. Martin Quinn, chief special agent, said his men discovered that rails had been pulled from at least three or four ties.

VIOLENCE SPREADS

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Disorder continued to flare in the tail shop workers' strike during the early hours of its eighth week despite peace negotiations pending at New York and assurances by chiefs of the "big four" that no sympathetic strike of train service employees impends.

While Michigan Central detectives were investigating the Gary, Ind., wreck in which two of the train crew were killed early yesterday, violence broke out anew at scattered points from coast to coast.

On the Atlantic side, new disorders occurred at Columbia, S. C., where eleven men brought in to work in the shops of the Southern railway were attacked by a crowd of strike sympathizers.

Hostilities broke out again in San Bernardino, Calif., where four men employees of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe shops were attacked and beaten.

Hurrying to Kansas City following a near riot in the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific shops there, Governor Allen of Kansas, gave Mayor Harry Burton 24 hours in which to restore order, threatening to send troops if the situation did not improve.

OFFICERS ARRESTED

Official complications arose at Corbin, Ky., where Chief of Police Manning, a policeman and two deputy sheriffs were arrested on federal warrants charging them with resisting and interfering with United States Marshal Williams and his deputies in the discharge of their duties.

Guardmen of the St. Louis-Louisville line of the Southern railway at Princeton, Ind., who had been on a strike since Saturday morning, returned to work and freight and passenger traffic which had been tied up was restored.

Governor Hart of Washington took steps to protect fruit growers of his state by sending a representative to Washington to ask the interstate commerce commission for action that

PRESIDENT HARDING TELLS CONGRESS OF U. S. POLICIES ON STRIKES

The eyes of the nation turned toward Washington as President Harding appeared in person before congress last Friday to outline the government's position in the railroad and mine strikes. Here he is shown reading his message, while congressmen and spectators in the galleries listen intently.

JOHNSTOWN BEER HELD LAWFUL

Not Above Prescribed Percentage Dry Chief Believes

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. — (Associated Press) — Mayor Joseph Caulfield's invitation to saloon keepers and brewers to sell "real beer and ale" failed to bring a flood of prohibition beverages to Johnstown, according to reports of federal prohibition agents today. E. A. Spragg, agent in charge of this district, reported he had seven men on duty "going over the situation," but that no arrests had been made. The inquiry, he added, would be continued but he thought the brewers and saloon owners were "too wise to run afoul of the federal laws."

Many saloons and other "soft drink" establishments reported record sales Saturday. The dry sleuths, however, were on the job, and Mr. Spragg said he believed the beer produced was within the confines of one half of one per cent.

Mayor Caulfield was silent today, but his smile indicated that he was well pleased with the situation. In his invitation to the brewers and saloonkeepers to sell "real beer," the mayor declared Johnstown was overrun by bootleggers who were marketing "poison," and that the city's water supply was unfit for drinking purposes.

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press) — Prohibition Commissioner Haynes is still officially unaware that beer and ale have been sold in Johnstown, Pa., as a substitute for water, it was said today at prohibition headquarters, beyond newspaper accounts of the "Johnstown Beer Flood."

Mr. Haynes, officials said, has received no report of the Pennsylvania situation which is declared to be in the hands of Federal Director Davis of that state.

TWO CITIES TAKEN

Irish Rebels Are Driven Out by National Army

DUBLIN — (Associated Press) — National army forces have captured Bandon and Dunmanway, two of the few remaining rebel strongholds in south Ireland, and the irregulars are hastily retreating. (Bandon is 15 miles southwest of Cork and Dunmanway is the same distance west of Bandon.)

The advice said to have been given by Ramon De Valera to the irregulars, that they were free to return to their homes when they thought fit, seems to have had its effect as many have already resumed civil life.

TARIFF BILL DELAYED IN REACHING CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON — So numerous were the changes made in the administration tariff bill during its stormy course thru the senate that the experts and government printing office working jointly and overtime, were unable to get out a new print over Sunday with the result that the sending of the measure to conference was delayed.

Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee said today he expected the reprinted bill to be ready tomorrow for house action. In that event, he added, it would be sent to conference under a special rule. The conferees would then begin work late tomorrow or Wednesday.

CHURCH PROGRAM COSTS LIFE

Holy Roller Bitten in Attempting Capture of Snake

FORT PAYNE, Ala. — (Associated Press) — James Wylie Reece, a "Holy Roller" and farmer, residing on Sand Mountain, near Chavis, about seven miles from here, is dead today as the result of being bitten by a large rattlesnake from which he died within 20 minutes, according to reports received today.

Reece, it was said, was bitten while attempting to capture the snake.

It is said that Reece on various occasions had assisted in conducting religious seances in which poison snakes were handled and exhibited by members of the church.

Reece was indicted by the grand jury a year or so ago on a murder charge. It was alleged that he permitted a snake to bite and kill one of his children. However, when the case came up for trial he was freed, the judge declaring every person in this country should be permitted to serve God according to the dictates of his own conscience and that it was thru ignorance that the defendant attempted to practice such religious activities in the community at the time.

ATTEMPT ROBBERY

Thieves Fail to Gain Entrance to Hardware Store

A heavy door frustrated attempts of burglars to enter the R. P. Jones hardware store, Public Square, Sunday night, according to a report given police.

Indications were that an ax had been used in the attempt. Merchant Policeman Hurley, reported the case.

PARTY STARVING IN MID-OCEAN

Crew of Becalmed Schooner 11 Days Without Food

SAN FRANCISCO — (Associated Press) — A tale of the sea, a becalmed ship, a starving crew and a mother with a new born babe, to preserve for whose life everyone else sacrificed rations, thrilled the water front here today upon the arrival of the motorship Annie Johnson with news of the San Francisco schooner William H. Smith.

The schooner was becalmed in the Pacific for 43 days and was discovered on August 14, when Captain Murray of the Johnson responded to her signals of distress and provided her with supplies.

A pitiable condition was found aboard the schooner. The crew of seven men had been eleven days almost without food except the copra with which the schooner was loaded. They were physically unable to hoist the emergency supply of rations over the ship's side.

In the cabin Mrs. Nels P. Jensen, wife of the master, was attempting to nurse her baby whose cries rapidly were growing weaker. The mother, altho favored by captain and crew in the matter of available food, could not supply sufficient nourishment for the infant.

The crew of the becalmed vessel, it was said, was beginning to show signs of insanity when the motorship came to the rescue.

For 116 days no word had been heard from the unfortunate vessel and she had been given up for lost.

With favorable winds, it is expected, she will be in port before the end of the week.

GERMAN SUPERIORITY SHOWN IN AIR TESTS

PARIS — The superiority of the Germans in "gliding"—flying without engines—is emphasized by the results of the international contests at Clermont Ferrand, which closed yesterday. The best accomplishment was that of a Farman biplane which in the two weeks flying was in the air a total of 49 minutes 59 seconds.

Edmund Allen, the American entry was given seventh place. His flights totaled 12 minutes 27 seconds before his machine was put out of competition by accident.

In gliding tests at Gersfeld, Germany, last Saturday, Horst Henzen, a student of the Hanover Technical School kept a machine in the air two hours and ten seconds on a single flight, breaking all records.

AMERICAN RAINMAKER IS CALLED TO ITALY

LONDON — An American "rain-maker," who claims to have brought relief to drought sufferers in the United States and Canada has arrived at Naples, having been invited by the Italian government to try to bring rain to that vicinity, parched by five months drought, says a Central News dispatch from Naples today.

If he is successful at Naples the government will engage him to repeat the process in other districts suffering from lack of rain. He was quoted today as saying he was anxious to explain his secret process to Pope Pius and if the pontiff agreed, he would try to induce rain to fall on the Vatican gardens which for some time have been withered by the drought.

Indications are that the yeggs went immediately to the second floor upon gaining admission. They secured the fur coats there that were used in wrapping the big safe.

A number of jewels, the property of Mrs. Jonas Wohlgemuth, were taken by the yeggs. They included a number of diamonds. They were kept in the big strong box for safety.

PLANE BELIEVED LOST AT SEA

Fliers Hunt Missing Sight-Seeing Machine off New York

KEYPORT, N. J. — (United Press) — A fleet of seaplanes flew away from the hangars of the Aero-Marine Airways, Inc., today and sweeping low over the surface of the Atlantic and lower New York bay, began searching for a sight-seeing plane carrying one passenger and two mechanics, missing 24 hours.

It is feared that if the plane has been forced to descend on the water, those aboard will be found dead even if the machine itself is located, as high seas have prevailed all thru the period the craft has been missing.

The identity of the passenger had not been learned this morning. A wealthy man, it is understood, chartered the seaplane for a trip to Fire Island, off New York. With Pilot Miller and Mechanician Thompson, he set sail from the company's station at 7th St. and the Hudson river at 7 a. m. Sunday. The last seen of the plane was when it passed over the Battery, the lower end of Manhattan island, at a high rate of speed.

When the seaplane failed to return, another was sent out. It covered the route to Fire Island and back but its observers saw no trace of the missing machine. Converted submarine chaser, mother ship of the aeromarine fleet, then took up the hunt. Then a navy wireless sent out warnings to all ships approaching New York to keep a lookout and throughout the night searchlights crisscrossed on the dark waters of the lower bay, but without glinting on even a bit of wreckage to hint at the fate of the missing plane and the men it carried.

Thieves Secure $2,000 In Money, Jewelry and Valuable Merchandise In One of Most Daring Robberies on Record In This City

Expensive Fur Coats Used In Feldman Store to Deaden Sound of Explosion—Automobiles Carry Loot Away, Police Believe

Yeggs cracked three safes, securing more than $2,000 in cash, a quantity of jewelry and carried off hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise from the Feldman store, N. Main-st, in the heart of the city's business section early Sunday morning. The job was one of the most daring on record in Lima.

The total loss to the store will amount to $10,000, according to an estimate made Monday by Jonas Wohlgemuth, one of the proprietors.

Looting of the store was so systematically carried out that police are convinced the work was that of a well-organized band of thieves who had been planning the robbery for several days.

It is believed that automobiles were used to haul the loot away after the robbery.

Entrance to the store is believed to have been effected thru the front door of the store. It was found Monday that the lock had been tampered with. Employees of the store reported that when the door was locked Saturday night they now remember a peculiar click, leading to the belief that the lock had been "fixed" by the thieves sometime earlier to make access easy.

REAR DOORS JIMMIED AND EXIT MADE THRU THEM BY THIEVES

Exit was made thru the large rear doors of the store, the locks of which had been jimmied. It is believed that autos had been stationed there to receive the loot.

The manner in which the store was ransacked showed that the thieves had taken their time. It is estimated that at least two hours were required for the robbery.

Eleven expensive fur coats were used to muffle the sound of the explosion when the big safe in the main office of the store was blown. They were completely ruined. It was from this safe that most of the money was secured. The cash box was taken to the second floor, where it was broken open and more than $1,000 taken, according to the report of proprietors.

Another safe in the main office was broken open with a heavy bar. A third safe, on the second floor, suffered the same fate. It was rolled to the center of the big floor and hammered open. It was at this point that the cash box from the big safe was opened. The smaller safes contained considerable cash, it was reported.

Indications are that the yeggs went immediately to the second floor upon gaining admission. They secured the fur coats there that were used in wrapping the big safe.

A number of jewels, the property of Mrs. Jonas Wohlgemuth, were taken by the yeggs. They included a number of diamonds. They were kept in the big strong box for safety.

FUR COATS, VALUABLE GOWNS AND EXPENSIVE MERCHANDISE STOLEN

An incomplete inventory Monday showed that in addition to the money and valuables taken from the safes, a number of high-priced fur coats, valuable gowns and other expensive merchandise of various kinds had been taken. The yeggs used good judgment in their selection, choosing only the most valuable, it was reported.

Police were notified of the robbery Sunday after H. M. Kamerer, one of the proprietors, went to the store as is his custom. He was accompanied by Sherman Abrams, in charge of the garment department.

Wohlgemuth was on his way to the store at the time. Kamerer attempting to call him by phone as soon as the robbery was discovered. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

A possible clue to the robbery, that may result in the apprehension of the yeggs was given by Wohlgemuth Monday. He called attention to a one dollar bill in the safe at the time of the robbery. The bill had been raised, he said, to a $5 note. Thieves took it with the rest of the money, he said.

Police are satisfied that a gang of men were responsible for the theft. They are also satisfied that the men were professionals who had made a thorough study of conditions.

Detective Willis Kipker has been detailed to investigate the robbery. Chief of Police T. A. Lanker, Monday morning, had photographs taken of finger prints left by the yeggs. An effort will be made by this means to place the responsibility for the robbery upon known criminals.

Practically all of the safes were marked with finger prints. The small one on the second floor, close examination showed, had the imprint of a whole hand at the bottom of one side where it appeared as tho one of the handlets had grasped it to lift it over an obstruction.

Lanker is of the opinion that a gang committed the robbery, and that the "playground" of the outfit is in this vicinity.

Detective Kipker, whom he has assigned to investigate the robbery, is under orders to spend all of his time in an effort to round up the men responsible.

BOY BADLY HURT

Elida Youth Injured When Auto and Horse Collide

Lowell Cristenberry, 12, son of Joshua Cristenberry, west of Elida, had his skull fractured Sunday at 4:30 p. m. when a horse he was riding collided with a machine driven by Bonnie Gakman of Elida, a mile and a half southwest of the town.

The boy was toppled off the horse's back and his head pierced the windshield of the auto, cutting a large hole in the scalp.

Cristenberry was given attention at Dr. Lowery's office in Elida and then removed to the City hospital here.

According to information from the hospital Monday, he showed some improvement and appears to have successfully withstood the delicate surgical operation.

AIRPLANES BRING CHANGE IN BATTLESHIP PLANS

CHICAGO — Battleships have not been rendered obsolete by the building of bombing planes, but the ships must be built differently in the future. Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the division of aeronautics of the United States navy, said in an address at the pagani of progress yesterday. He asserted that a dirigible is being built near Philadelphia that will be larger than the one destroyed in England a few months ago. A trans-continental flight and flights to the North and South pole and around the world are being planned he said.

CONTEST WINNERS ARE SELECTED

Boys and Girls Win Admission to County Fair

HUNDREDS ENTER CONTEST

Tickets for Successful Ones at News Office

Winners in the Boys' and Girls' Picture contest, conducted by The Lima News in co-operation with the Allen County Fair, are herewith announced by the Contest Editor. Hundreds of boys and girls clipped the series of Fair pictures, titled and arranged them in attractive little booklets, from which were chosen fifty.

Many of the contestants submitted artistic groups of pictures, others were less artistic but the last word in neatness. In each case however, the Contest Editor carefully examined the entries, and endeavored to be as fair as possible in awarding the prizes.

Each of the contestants listed below will receive a ticket to the Allen County Fair, which opens in Lima on Tuesday, August 22nd. Tickets may be secured by calling at The Lima News office, Contest Editor. To the many who were unsuccessful in winning a free ticket to the fair, the Contest Editor wishes to express appreciation for the effort made, and regrets that the number of tickets is so comparatively limited.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LESTER HUMPHREYS TUES.

Body of Lester Humphreys, 39, who died in Pittsburgh after two weeks illness with typhoid fever, was brought here Sunday and taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphreys, Marion-tp, ten miles west of Lima.

Humphreys was a steam shovel operator and had been located in Pittsburgh for a considerable length of time.

He leaves, besides his parents, two daughters and a brother, Alfred Humphreys.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Humphreys residence in charge of Rev. Boroff. Interment in Walnut Grove cemetery.

WORK ON SIDEWALKS AT POSTOFFICE TO START

Work on the new sidewalks to be placed around the postoffice will be started Tuesday, Postmaster A. E. Gale said Monday. T. J. Mulligan and Son will do the work.

Five bidders submitted estimates on the work the lowest, $600 being presented by the Mulligan firm. There was $1,000 difference between the lowest and the highest bids.

Arrangement are being made to have both doors of the postoffice open at all times.

CADGES ARE ORDERED FOR MAIL CARRIERS

Numbered badges for the mail carriers and substitutes of the Lima postoffice have been ordered by Postmaster A. E. Gale. It was announced Monday.

Badges numbered 1 to 25 have been ordered for the regular carriers and numbers 26 to 33 assigned to the five substitute carriers. As all postoffices in the country are receiving new badges it may be several weeks before they are received, Gale fears.

WILL TAKE EXAM.

Many of the teachers who expect to instruct in Allen-co schools next term will strive for certificates in examinations to be conducted at Central High school Friday, beginning at 8 a. m.

PAPER CANS ARE PLACED ON STREETS FOR RUBBISH

A number of waste paper cans have been purchased by the city and are being placed at strategic points in the city.

Lack of funds have made it impossible for the city to buy all that are needed at the present time. In time it is hoped that the cans may be placed conveniently throughout the business district, he said.

It is hoped by the city officials that citizens will place all waste paper and other rubbish in like character of the cans instead of the streets. It will be for a cleaner Lima, they believe.

Heavy steel is used in the construction of the cans which have an automatic trap. A large burlap sack catches the refuse and permits it to be cleaned out easily.

Officials hope that every effort will be expended to protect the cans from destruction by vandals. Previous attempts to place waste paper cans on the streets have proved unsuccessful, they state.

TWO SHOPS AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — Two employees of the Pennsylvania railroad were shot and stabbed as they were leaving their work here early today.

The men are Mike Roberts, 27, and Frank Roberts, 25, section hands.

According to the story told police by the victims of the shooting, they were attacked by six men who leaped from a car, armed with bricks, knives and revolvers.

The two men were knocked down, they said. The shots were fired as the assailants were speeding away in their auto.

Police said they believed the men were taken for strike-breakers. Both will live.

NAMES FOUND

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Investigation by State's Attorney Crowe into the documents found in Foster's office disclosed a memorandum book labeled "Credentialed List" bearing more than 100 names of persons to whom "credentialed" of the league had been given.

They were listed among others: Joseph E. Jones of the United Mine Workers of Christopher, Ill.; E. Curtis Ikenhouse of the Jewelers Union of Hamilton, Ill.; L. K. England of Moline, Ill., who was among the Communists convicted with William Bross Lloyd, wealthy leader of the Communist party; Hulet M. Wells, well known labor leader of Seattle, W. Va.

Frederick Gustafson was made to the work of the league among railroad workers. Several letters were from radical leaders in England and Germany. "There will be more action," said State's Attorney Crowe, discussing the mass of evidence seized in the raid.

MANY I. W. W. MEMBERS

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Many members of the "Industrial Workers of the World" are numbered among the railroad strikers and a number of them "have demonstrated their objection to military despotism by quitting their jobs," according to a statement of Martin Carlson, general secretary of the railroad workers' union, a part of the I. W. W. organization, according to an announcement by the general defense committee today. Carlson's statement was called forth by recent statements of Attorney General Daugherty that he believed there was a relation between the railroad strikes and the I. W. W. and that there were indications that the I. W. W. are willing to take over some responsibility of railway transportation and even the government itself in the west.

"It is true that there are I. W. W. members among the railroad strikers in various centers who have demonstrated their objection to military despotism by quitting their jobs," Mr. Carlson was quoted by the defense committee. "There are I. W. W. members also among the men at work in other railroad departments, and they too would be out on strike if the majority of the workers in those departments had not been under the domination of their grand officers."

Carlson was quoted as saying also that the I. W. W. were "willing and eager" to take over "all responsibility for railroad transportation and for the conduct of all other productive industries." He denied, however, that the organization sought control of the reins of government.

PEDESTRIANS WARNED TO OBSERVE TRAFFIC SIGNS

Police warned pedestrians, Monday, to observe the signals of Lima traffic officers as rigorously as automobiles are required to do.

Pedestrians, Chief of Police Lankier declared, are subject to the signals of the officer in the middle of the intersection, as such, as are those people who use the streets for thoroughfares.

The direction of traffic indicated on the officer he declared should be followed by pedestrians. Attempts to cross a flow of traffic, he warned, may result in serious accidents for pedestrians would have to be held responsible.

HOTEL CLERK IS FINED FOR POSSESSING LIQUOR

W. A. Sutters, hotel clerk, was fined $100 in police court Monday, after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of possessing illicit liquor.

Sutters was arrested, Saturday night on N. Central-av.

Harry J. Watt, arrested on a similar charge when police swooped down on a soft drink parlor on First-st., Saturday night, pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for Monday, August 28. His bond was fixed at $1,000.

THEFT IS ADMITTED

Don Grady, 315 1-2 S. Main-st. returned to Lima from South Bend, Ind., to answer for the theft of a bicycle from Clarence A. Adams of this city, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny placed against him Monday in police court. His bond was fixed at $200.

COAL PROBE BILL IS DRAWN UP

Action Taken in Congress on Harding's Demand

PROVIDES FOR BOARD OF 5

Members Are to be Appointed by President

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — A bill authorizing full investigation of the coal industry as demanded in President Harding's message to congress was drawn up by Representative Winslow, chairman of the house interstate commerce committee, after a conference with the president today.

The bill provides for appointment of from five to nine members of the commission by the president.

The commission would be authorized to analyze every phase of the coal industry and submit a report to the house of representatives by January 1.

SENATE TO ACT

Sen. Borah, chairman of the labor committee, said he would try to get the labor committee together tomorrow to take up his bill providing for a fact-finding agency in the coal industry. Borah's bill has been endorsed by the White House, and in general, what the president desires in the way of legislation to secure reliable facts regarding how much money the coal operators are making, whether wages are right and whether prices are reasonable.

Borah said he intended to push for a vote on his bill as soon as the house is out of the way.

Because the senate is pledged to take up the bonus Wednesday, actual steps toward working out the legislative program agreed by President Harding will be left to the house this week. But all the house intends to do, under present plans of the Republican leaders, is to pass the coal investigating bill.

There is the same strong sentiment in the house, as exists in the senate against making an attempt to enact legislation providing for a federal agency. Financed by the treasury, to buy up coal and distribute it fairly in interstate commerce. This was one of Harding's chief suggestions, but one which will have to be backed up with considerable pressure from the White House, if any action is to be obtained on it by congress at this time.

RAILWAY LAW

Republican leaders at both ends of the capitol have virtually decided to wait until next session before making any effort to put "teeth" in the Esch-Cummins law so as to make enforceable decisions of the railroad labor board. They agree with the president that a move in that direction at this time would only hamper peace negotiations in the present rail strike.

House members believing they can enact all the industrial legislation required by them within ten days are hoping for another recess to enable them to get back to their districts to continue their political campaigns.

Rail executives realize that to win the present controversy they must ward off a serious breakdown in transportation. A big blow was dealt to their efforts to keep the crippled systems in operation with strikebreakers when the interstate commerce commission with the approval of President Harding announced that the laws by which agents of the commission can order defective equipment out of use would be strictly enforced. There is no appeal from orders of the commission banning the use of such equipment.

The reply which the interstate commerce commission soon will make to congress in response to a senate resolution will show more than half the 70,000 locomotives of the country are now defective due to the strike. This has caused the cancellation of many trains delays to others and the refusal of many big four brotherhood members to man the engines.

Officials of the interstate commerce commission predict that the "progressive deterioration" of equipment will reach a critical point within two or three weeks unless a settlement of the strike is effected.

Administration leaders are not making any optimistic predictions regarding the New York negotiations to end the strike. They are hopeful, but not confident, of a settlement.

HELD UNDER BOND

Possession of Liquor Charged to Russell Shaw

Russell Shaw, 31, 902 Madison-av, was arrested Monday, charged with possession of illicit liquor. He was also taken by police in an effort to establish the ownership of a 25-gallon still found in the basement of Shaw's home when police raided the place Saturday night.

He was released on a $1000 bond and ordered to appear in police court Tuesday morning, for arraignment.

A large quantity of illicit liquor, mash and the still, was taken by raiding officers, they reported.

BODY OF MRS. WADE ARRIVES FOR BURIAL

The body of Mrs. William A. Wade, 80, former Lima resident who died Saturday in Chicago, was brought here Monday afternoon. Funeral services will take place Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Woodlawn cemetery.

After the death of her husband three years ago, Mrs. Wade resided here for a short time with Mrs. O. C. DeWesse and then left for Chicago, where she lived with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. C. Wade.

No immediate relatives survive Mrs. Wade.

COMFORT STATION WORK BEGUN BY CONTRACTORS

Potts Brothers contractors on the new $13,750 court house comfort station commenced breaking ground for work to be pushed as rapidly as possible to insure completion of the station at the earliest possible date.

The old side walk at the corner of Main and North-sts is to be torn away, and the space below excavated.

Interior of the station will be finished with white tile throughout. Pink Tennessee marble panels will be used for interior compartments. Stairways with ornamental railing will lead down from the street.

Partial natural lighting will be obtained by heavy glass lights, which will form the ceiling of the station and side walk.

DEALERS GET FUEL REQUISITIONS

Among First to Seek Supply of Coal

A number of coal companies as well as industrial plants have requested blanks of the chamber of commerce, to be forwarded to the state fuel administrator.

Several of the coal companies supplying domestic users, were among the first to apply for blanks Monday. They are hoping to be able to obtain supply of coal for homes within a short time.

Unless an industrial plant or a coal dealer has fairly direct connections with a coal producer it will be found difficult to obtain coal, H. C. Breckenridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce fuel committee, said Monday.

Full control of the fuel condition in the state has not been put in force as yet, although the state has been distributed and distribution centers assigned.

Until full control of the situation is taken over by the state the priority rulings will not be in full force. When control is established all coal will be handled thru the state administration, Breckenridge understands.

DRAWS $150 FINES

Possession, Driving While Intoxicated, Charged to Agent

Oscar Goetz, 32, insurance agent, Wakarusa, arrested on dual charges of possession of intoxicating liquor, and driving a car while intoxicated, by Constable Ike Hall, Shawnee-tp, Sunday, was fined a total of $150, by Justice of the Peace H. M. Botkin, Monday.

Henry Keller, 48, found in his company, was released. Goetz, told the authorities that he obtained two bottles of corn whiskey from a stranger at Wakarusa, and started to drive to Lima in his car. He said he encountered Keller enroute here.

The two men are said to have gone into a ditch near Shawnee chapel and were rescued. Later a report came to Hall that the men were parked in a cherry orchard near the city limits.

He found them both intoxicated. They were brought to Lima and turned over to the police for safekeeping; Sunday night, and arraigned Monday, before Botkin.

Goetz pleaded guilty and was fined $100 for possession of whiskey and $50 for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

REPORT DESIRED

City Wants Data on Sewage Disposal Plant

A letter requesting information regarding the test of the direct oxidation sewage disposal system at Allentown, Pa., will be sent to George A. Johnson, expert in charge should nothing be heard from him Monday, City Manager Bingham said.

Conditions in Lima are such that it is necessary to start work on the sewage disposal plant as soon as possible and the results of the test now in progress will determine what method will be used.

Plans for the sprinkler-filter and the direct oxidation plants have been drawn up. City officials favor the oxidation method, if it is practicable, because of the smaller cost on installation and operation.

The test was due to be completed Sunday. It will more than likely require nearly a week to compile all figures and make out the report, Bingham says. Copies of the report will be sent to Lima, Ohio board of health, New Jersey board of health and the city of Trenton, N. J.

MEN AND MATTERS

Ted Taylor, Annapolis Naval Academy, is visiting with his parents for about four weeks. Taylor has just returned from his summer cruise.

Unsatisfactory rail conditions are holding up the construction work of the waterworks tool and supply house, City Manager Bingham says. Brick ordered for the walls has not been received.

Steel for the structure and the common brick for parts of the walls are on hand but the brick may be delayed several weeks or a month, he says.

Large stone albs being removed from the side walk at the southeast corner of the court house yard by workmen excavating for the new comfort station are to be used in making a stone paving at the County garage in the rear of the jail.

Commissioner Walter W. Crank, Marion-tp, breezed in from a tour of Michigan and Indiana lakes Monday, with the account of hooking a monster pike in Silver Lake.

Craig accompanied by his family, spent 13 days on the tour. At night the party camped out.

FAIR WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Record-breaking Crowd Expected on First Day

RACES WILL BE FEATURE

Fine Program is Arranged, Including Dashes

There are four big events on the program of the Allen-co fair Tuesday which officials say will in themselves attract 25,000 persons, the estimate on the first day's attendance.

The most important of these is the race card, which will be featured by the innovation of staging only runners. The barns were filled with high-strung horses and their jockeys Monday according to Race Superintendent Irvin Ridenour, a field of 12 or 15 wags will face Starter Jack Horner in each of the seven events.

That the opening day has been set aside as Children's day is also taken to mean that Tuesday's crowd will be greater than at any previous year.

The spelling bee, scheduled to take place under school auspices at 10 a. m. will feature 100 of the best spellers from the county system of schools. In the neighborhood of 4,000 are expected to witness the "spell down."

BALLOON ASCENSION

Lima, but not least, is the balloon ascension. Tomorrow, Jackson Mich. arrived Monday with a huge amount of paraphernalia and announced he will be ready to hobnob with the clouds at noon or a little after. After ascending to a great height, Donnelly will make a three-parachute drop with his three-in-one parachute.

But those four things will not be all that fair patrons will see. The exhibits of livestock comprise stock of the best breeders in Allen and nearby counties. The Art Hall is filled to capacity and Secretary G. Dale Creman declared the Fruit and Poultry Halls will give patrons a rare treat.

A large amount of the "trimmings" that enliven the fair arrived Monday and were installed with alacrity. The grounds began to look like a veritable tented city. Merry-go-rounds, ferris wheels and other pleasure machines are there in force.

Races begin at 1 p. m. First is a half-mile dash for a purse of $15. A five-eighths mile dash comes next. This purse is $100. Two out of three heats are necessary to cop the third race, a half-mile event. The $200 purse has attracted the largest entry.

A three-fourths mile dash for a $125 purse, a mile event, boys' pony race and farmers' road race complete the program. Youngsters who have animals 44 inches or under are eligible to compete for the $25 purse in the pony race.

BRECKENRIDGE IS FUEL DIRECTOR

Will Supervise Distribution in District of 10 Counties

Appointment of H. L. Breckenridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce fuel committee, as chairman of Fuel Administration District No. 5, comprising Allen and nine other adjacent counties was announced Monday.

He has been asked by George Poor, state chairman, to name a sub-committee at once, composed of members from each county in the district, to act on fuel needs in this section of the state.

Consumers who have contracts with coal producers or who are assured a supply thru orders already given priority will not be especially affected by the new rulings, Breckenridge says.

Applications will be received from those who are not in a position at the present time to obtain coal. It is this class of consumers which it is planned to help, he said.

INVESTIGATE CLAIMS

Investigation of claims for coal in the district will be in the hands of this committee and applications will be referred to it by the state department, it was announced.

Headquarters of the fuel administration for the district have been opened in the chamber of commerce offices and blanks are now available for applications by consumers and coal dealers, Breckenridge said.

Counties in the district are Paulding, Putnam, Van Wert, Hancock, Allen, Hardin, Mercer, Auglaize, Shelby and Logan-coos.

$300 FIRE LOSS

Maack Has Accident While Making Run to Blaze

Children playing with matches are blamed for a blaze that caused $300 damage Monday afternoon when a barn owned by Charles Tatlinger, one-half mile from the city limits on the Findlay-rd, was destroyed.

Lima fire department responded to a call for aid sent from the Tatlinger home.

The new seven-passenger car provided for the use of Chief John Maack of the fire department, was in to an automobile standing on the Findlay-rd where Jackson-st turns into it, while he was making the car which belongs to William Murray, employed at the Sam Sifter sawmill. A headlight was broken on the chief's car.

Maack continued his run to the fire. Firemen concentrated their efforts upon saving the residence and surrounding buildings. A bucket brigade did the work.

HAMILTON RETURNS.

Probate Judge Jesse H. Hamilton was back at his office Monday after a tour by motor thru Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana. He was accompanied by his family.

LIMA LEGION MEMBERS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

More than 100 members of William Paul Gallagher Post No. 96, American Legion, led by the post drum and bugle corps will march in the parade at the state convention in Dayton, September 11. Maurice Conner, post commander, announced Monday.

Low rates on all rail lines for Legion members have been secured. The Lima drum and bugle corps will compete with corps from other Ohio cities for prize money offered for the largest and most attractively uniformed unit.

The corps won state honors at the Marion Centennial July 5. Dates for the state convention are September 10 and 11.

NEW MODEL FORD AT FAIR

Latest Touring Design Makes Debut This Week in Allen-co

For the first time in Allen-co a new type Ford touring car will be shown this week at the fair.

One day last week Henry Ford ordered a new model touring car. Within 30 minutes from the time the order reached the foremen, the new car was under full production and the old model was forgotten.

Lima is one of the first cities in Ohio to receive the new car, according to L. B. Timmerman of the Timmerman Motor Sales Co., local Ford dealer.

Aside from this special display, a cut section of a

SUCCESS TRACED TO HARMONY

Brotherhood Spirit Declared Great Business Builder

REVEALED BY INVESTIGATION

Data is Gathered in 28 States and Canada

BOSTON — (Associated Press)—Survey committees of the Unitarian Laymen's League, investigating business concerns in 28 states and in Canada in which industrial harmony prevails and conflict is unknown, have completed their reports of 650 surveys, covering both the very largest industries and also many which the small are representative, and the "one outstanding fact which exists in every single case" was announced by the League as follows:

"The managers have acted upon their consciousness that all who work in their organizations are fellow human beings—brothers—and the spirit of the managers is also the spirit of the great majority of the workers."

"The Unitarian Laymen's League is not equipped to make a complete canvass of all the concerns in the United States and Canada in which industrial harmony prevails, but certainly the fact that, in every case reported, success in business and industrial harmony have gone hand in hand with action based upon the principle of man's brotherhood with man, is a straw which probably indicates the direction of the wind."

MORE SURVEYS

These surveys were authorized by the annual convention of the Laymen's League, held in September, 1921, at Narragansett Pier, R. I., to which 166 of the League's 242 chapters sent delegates. The report of the committee in charge will be submitted at the 1922 convention, to be held at New London, Conn., September 8, 9, 10. The 24 chapters which have been organized since the 1921 convention will be asked to make surveys before the final report, with conclusions and recommendations, is made.

Other league and chapter problems and programs will be discussed "without benefit of clergy." At these annual conventions of Unitarian laymen, the only minister present comes to preach the convention sermon.

ALLIES TO CONFER ON TURCO-GREEK PROBLEM

PARIS — The allied conference on the Turco-Greek problem probably will be held in some Italian city within the next six weeks, as the result of a note from the British government received at the French foreign office today. The note is in response to a French communication of August 3, suggesting a conference of the allies in which Turkish and Greek representatives would be admitted on an equal basis.

Official confirmation of the forthcoming meeting was withheld today pending the return of Premier Poincaré who is in the department of the Meuse to dedicate a soldier's monument. But in well informed circles it was said that such a meeting was assured. Representatives of both the Angora and Constantinople governments will be invited as well as the allied high commissioners in Constantinople.

Fair Visitors To Tonsorial Parlors Lured By Clippers

Boy, page the Barber of Seville! The ramifications of that tonsorial artist of classic lore is made to look like a German mark beside a good old U. S. two-bit piece when ye comparison turns to the modern wielder of the hirsute scythe.

For months he didn't know what to make of the increasing stream of the fair sex which upset another stronghold of mere man, ousting him as the sole occupant of the barber's throne. Dismayed, he had nothing to do but observe directions.

It began to look as though no place would be left sacred for masculinity. What Volstead did to the tiproom, the flapper did to the tonsorial establishment.

But now the pendulum has swung back and the exponent of the striped pole is disappointed! Yes, sir, Ask 'em yourself.

Joe Fisher, barber in the shop below the City Bank, says ranks of the female "visitors are thinning a d he's taking it as an indication that bobbed hair is becoming passé.

The reason? Dunno, unless it be that abbreviated tresses are harder to "put up" and stay "put" than regulation length. Some have confessed that timely explanation, declaring it takes twice as much time to attend to the short 'uns, probably because they find new stubbornness.

The findings made by Joe may be taken as an indication that once more, can poor man be free of the flapper who had no inhibitions about it being unwomanly to enter a barber shop.

Barbers, admit, however, she made 'em shine up equipment, clean out combs and dress up like a beauty shop, taking those things as a matter of course when she slipped into the chair and gave the astonished gentleman in white coat directions how she wanted her hair treated.

The philosophic barber did not condemn bobbed hair. He encouraged it, grandly and broadmindedly. But now! Sad fate!

There is a ray of hope. While she coaxes 'em back to normal how about the neck? Ah, there's encouragement. Some object to tufts back there, barbers say, so while the uppers branch out again the gentry of immaculate dress may get the joy of preventing accumulation of "underbrush."

DEFENSE OBJECTS TO JURY ATTENDING CHURCH

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O. — Dominick Venturato, first of 13 miners to be tried for the murder of John I. Major, strip mine worker, is expected to take the stand late today or Tuesday.

Jurors didn't have to attend church Sunday. The fact that a minister preached on "Thou shalt not kill" when a murder case jury was taken to church several years ago, resulted in strenuous objections to the proposal by counsel for the defense.

Instead Sheriff Lynch took the jury for a bus ride along the National road.

COAT HELD, CHARGE

Mrs. Fred Ballinger's serge coat is being held by A. W. Ruch, 265 E. Pearl-st., because her children broke three cups that belong to the Ruch family, her husband told police. The Ballinger's live at 229 S. Central-av.

Police told Ballinger to take the case to a justice court.

CUPID'S ROOM IS ADVOCATED

Reception Parlor at Court House Needed, Says Clerk

Prospective brides and grooms who go to the Allen-court house to obtain marriage license, would be received in royal style, if Jessie P. Miller, license clerk in probate court, had her way.

She advocates better accommodations for the couples who seek happiness via the altar route.

At present when several couples are waiting for license, there is often no place for them to rest until their turn comes.

A sort of parlor, fitted with easy chairs, would be just the checkers, Miss Miller believes. Unfortunately the present court house has its architectural limitations. There is no space for such a waiting room.

Some benches in the corridor were suggested as a remedy. The only drawback, however, is the gloomy surroundings, and the fact that loafers would monopolize the benches.

At present couples who come to obtain license must sit in the outer office in probate court, subject to the curious gaze, whispers and snickerings of visitors.

At times the private office of Judge J. H. Hamilton can be turned into a waiting room in a pinch.

Miss Miller may submit her ideas to the county commissioners, along with a requisition for some furniture to accommodate couples.

EXHIBITS FOR PIG AND CLOTHING CLUBS RECEIVED

Pig club and clothing club exhibits were being received at the fair grounds Monday by H. J. Ridge, county farm agent. Some exceptionally good work has been done during the past year, he says.

All exhibits are to be in place by Monday night with some few to arrive Tuesday morning early. Judging of the exhibits will start Tuesday.

Boys in the pig clubs should be at the fair grounds between 9 and 10 a. m. Tuesday to watch the judging of their stock. W. A. Smith, state expert, will do the judging.

Judging of the girls' club work will start Wednesday with Miss Fannie Mills, state club worker, in charge. Clothing exhibits are in the art hall.

CO-OP COMPANY SHIPS 95,000 POUNDS STOCK

More than 95,430 pounds of livestock were shipped thru the Allen-co Livestock Shipping Co. during the month of July. It was valued at $8,956.34 and from the farms of 55 shippers. C. F. Mertz, manager of the company, says.

Cooperative shipping associations throughout the state gathered livestock weighing 8,374,789 pounds and valued at $788,875 from more than 4,500 producers during the month a state report shows. Expense of marketing, exclusive of shrink, was 67 cents a hundred pounds.

FOREST FIRES UNDER CONTROL

DULUTH, Minn. — With the forest fire situation reported well in hand, a concentrated effort was begun today by forest rangers and others to reduce the menace of peat bog fires which have been mainly responsible for the early season fires in the woods in northern Minnesota. Three companies of national guardsmen are in the Kelsey fire zone today, assisting rangers in digging trenches, building back fires around homes and pouring streams of water into the peat beds.

PRIEST TO LEAVE

Father Shumaker is Assigned to Toledo Church

Rev. Norbert M. Shumaker, for 13 months assistant pastor at St. John's Catholic church, S. Main-st., will leave his post here the latter part of this week for Toledo, where he has been assigned to St. Theresa's parish.

Announcement of the change was made at services Sunday morning. Rev. Bernard Fraelich, of Toledo, for three months a pastor at Tiffin, will succeed to the assistant pastorate, it became known Monday.

Father Shumaker has been active in promoting activities among young people of the congregation. St. John's church was his first assignment after entering priesthood.

A reception or some other kind of social event is being talked of among parishioners in honor of the departing priest.

CITY SINKING FUND MAY PURCHASE STREET BONDS

A meeting of the sinking fund trustees of the city to decide whether a portion of the $56,000 issue of street paving bonds shall be taken by the fund may be held Monday. Evan O. Sellers, city auditor, said Monday.

As there are a number of bonds of odd denominations among those to be issued, it is hoped it will be possible to sell them either to the city fund or that of the state, Sellers says.

Should it be found impossible to sell the bonds in this manner they will be advertised and sold to the highest bidder. Some difficulty may be seen in selling them as they are in odd amounts and of small denomination, Sellers states.

FOREMAN TELLS OF HIS BIG GAIN

"Five years ago Tanlac ended a bad case of stomach trouble for me and built me up twenty pounds in a few weeks," said Harry Y. Crouse, 967 N. 4th St., Columbus, Ohio, foreman for the Timkin Auto Bearing Co.

"For years I had been in a badly run-down condition, suffering from indigestion in its worst form. Right after eating I felt dull and my heart palpitated terribly. I got so out of sorts I was hardly able to stay at work."

"Tanlac soon had me feeling fine and I have been in the very best of health ever since until a short time ago I began to feel run down. Then Tanlac again put me back in fine shape. Several of my friends took Tanlac and they all praise it, too."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

More than 200 members of the Knights of Pythias and their wives enjoyed their annual picnic dinner and watermelon feast Sunday at MeBeth's park.

Members of the Spencerville, Beaverdam, Grover Hill, Columbus Grove, Huntsville and Delphos lodges joined with the Lima Knights in the day's festivities.

Dinner was served at 2 p. m. following which the Knights and their ladies joined in various games and races. Louis Durkee, Bluffton, won the annual fat man's race. There were also several horse shoe pitching contests.

Watermelon was served at 4 p. m. The melons were ice cold and in abundance. This year's picnic was one of the best ever held, L. H. Rogers, commander, said Monday.

CURSE OF YOUTH

IS the barefoot boy a vanishing institution in our cities? A traveling salesman sends this letter to The Lima News:

"I make hundreds of towns and cities, selling my goods, and it strikes me that each year I see fewer and fewer barefoot boys. Of course, there still are many, paddling about without shoes, particularly in the smaller towns. But I am wondering if the time is not far off when the barefoot boy will be a curiosity in the big cities. You can travel miles now without seeing a lad with a stubbed toe bound up in a wad of cloth. When I was a boy, a youngster wearing shoes and stockings in summer was so scarce that people when they saw one wondered what was wrong with him."

Many of the rest of us have noticed the gradual passing of the barefoot boy. City pavements are too hot for the unprotected foot. It is a big loss for youth. How big a loss, is known only to the grown-up who in memory has the delightful recollection of bare feet padding thru thick August dust of a country road or wiggling deliciously in mud puddles and ruts after a rain. "Them were the days."

ANOTHER institution of which youth is being robbed in the cities is the alley.

Real estate is too valuable to waste on alleys. Blocks are being laid out smaller. The short garage drive from the curb has taken the place of the alley.

Oh, grievous loss! What would boyhood have been like, years ago, without the alleys thru which we explored, gathering scrap iron and bones in a dirty old burlap bag for the junkman? High board fences were along those alleys, to keep youthful pirates out of orchards at the back of yards large enough to play a ball game in.

THE alleys are passing. So are the tall back fences. So are the huge back yards. A garage and a strip of half-dead grass the size of a living-room rug are all that separate the typical modern city house from the neighbor on the street in the rear. Youth on the pavements, dodging the auto maniacs who curse them and "wonder why parents don't keep their brats off the streets."

We grown-ups talk a lot about the discomforts of metropolitan congestion. But it is youth that is footing the lion's share of the bill. Another 50 years of "progress" and there will not be any such thing as boyhood in the cities. Babies will be handed radio outfits and other pacifiers when they begin wondering what's beyond the walls of the house.

We're fortunate now, to be getting old.

ANIMAL WARS

CARVETH Wells, explorer, tells about the whale-killer. It's a big fish, about as long as a Pullman car, living in the ocean around the South Pole country.

As many as 16 seals have been found in the whale-killer's stomach. But the whale-killers are not satisfied with merely getting enough to eat. They want luxuries—delicacies.

So a gang of them get together and attack a sperm whale until they make it open its mouth. Then they tear out its tongue. That's mob attack—warfare.

Cynics point to this as an illustration that war is a natural state, that war is being waged constantly all thru nature. So, they reason, human war can never be ended. There's something to be said on the other side.

Up north, the timber wolves pair off in couples, peacefully sneaking away into caves to raise their young.

Next winter, when food will be scarce and hard to catch against a white snow background, the wolves will begin running in packs—their combinations for warfare.

WHEN STRONG MEN WEEP

It is all a matter of food. Wolves never attack humans unless driven to it by starvation.

Of all creatures in nature, ants are the most like humans. Ants maintain standing armies, scientifically organized, with officers in charge of regiments and battalions.

These ant armies, however, are for defense.

Occasionally the ant armies line up and march off to attack another colony of ants. Sometimes this is for the purpose of capturing neighbor ants and turning them into slaves.

But 99 times out of 100, ants do not go to war until their food supply gives out and they must conquer a new one or starve.

The so-called constant warfare in nature is a simple struggle for existence—to obtain food. As soon as food is obtained, war stops.

Nature makes food scarce in the animal world because the constant warfare strengthens the fighters, kills off the weak and inefficient, and permits survival only of the fittest.

There was some excuse, in the natural sense, for men warring in the days when it was nip-and-tuck with starvation.

But today agriculture, mechanical production and the system of distribution are developed to the point where there would be more than enough food for every person on earth if equitably divided.

That destroys the basic excuse for war. Anything interfering with the free flow of food is a dynamic generator of war.

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

FIGHTING DIPHTHERIA

Diphtheria is probably the most treacherous of all children's diseases. It attacks and progresses quickly. There is a specific curative agent, antitoxin, but you usually don't know you have diphtheria until it's too late for antitoxin to have any preventive effect or to stop the course of the disease.

Before science had discovered and applied antitoxin, more than half the diphtheria cases died. Today only one out of every eight cases proves fatal and a great many of these deaths are the result of delay. It has been pretty well proved that every case of diphtheria could be cured by giving the antitoxin during the first 24 hours of the disease.

That this remedy may be administered in time, it is necessary to call

If you have a friend suffering with eczema or other itching, burning eruption, what greater kindness could you do him than to say:
"Why don't you try Resinol? I know you have experimented with a dozen treatments, but I believe Resinol is different. It does not claim to be a 'cure-all'—simply a soothing, healing ointment, free from all harsh drugs, that physicians prescribe widely in just such cases as yours. Do get a jar today!"

THAT there are Physicians who specialize on Infant ailments you know. All Physicians understand Infant troubles: all Physicians treat them. It is his profession, his duty, to know human ills from the Stork to the Great Beyond.

But in serious cases he calls in the Specialist. Why? He knows as every Mother knows, or ought to know, that Baby is just a baby, needing special treatment, special remedies.

Can a Mother be less thoughtful? Can a Mother try to relieve Baby with a remedy that she would use for herself? Ask yourself; and answer honestly!

Always remember that Baby is just a baby. And remembering this you will remember that Fletcher's Castoria is made especially for Infants and Children.

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit. Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

The big splash, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little one.

To them: to these true mothers no argument can induce them to set aside their bottle of Castoria, their old friend, that they might try even another and unknown remedy for babies. Then, would YOU think of going to YOUR OWN medicine chest to find relief for Baby's troubles? Can you not separate the false from the true?

in the family physician when the least suspicion arises

If the child has a sore throat with white, flaky deposits on the tonsils, it is suspicious. One should not wait for further symptoms, such as fever and marked physical depression; these are signs of an advanced stage.

A croup cough is suspicious. When the disease attacks the voice box, hoarseness and a ringing cough result, and the victim may soon strangle from obstruction of the wind-pipe, caused by the diphtheritic membrane.

A running nose is another suspicious symptom. Parents should look out for the dirty, white discharge noticeable in diphtheria cases—a serious obstruction to breathing.

School children may "catch" diphtheria from one another in many ways—by drinking from the same cup, by putting pencils and marbles to their mouths, by turning pages of books with wet fingers, by kissing, spitting, coughing, sneezing or by using infected towels, handkerchiefs or napkins

Miss Princess Bud has got a good joke on her dad. He didn't recognize her yesterday until after he'd paid her way to a movie. The reason 'th' way o' th' transgressor is hard is cause it's so crowded.

About the railroads. At noon to the bank to deposit my weekly stipend, and thus lower the debts in my little book. Saw others there, many taking out, but one workman cashing a check which read $53.60. Which methinks is a sign of no hard times.

Home, to lunch on a piece of pig and marmalade with hot biscuits. So, abroad met Dr. P. L. Tussing, the eminent physician coming in, and returned. To learn things were going fine, and no better could be hoped. Again out, and twice offered coach to the metropolitan district. Yet walked, albeit for health's sake. Talked long with Jim Gensel about monies and buildings.

In the poste, saluted by a letter for J. E. Jackenrim and mailed it anew to Market-st west. Dodged motels the afternoon thru. The two things now, adays that people want are gas wagons and beer. All the people want gas wagons; and a few under half the people want beer. Taxation should be on what people want. Not on what they need. A tax of $100 a gas wagon and 100 percent on beer would pay off the war-debt. And nobody kick. But instead, we tax homes and incomes to pay for roads, that the motors chew up and throw into fields; and pay 100 percent for St. Wheeler's army to keep the bootleggers out of Canada and from the coast. Which they don't.

A reader of this column of piffle insulted me by saying the tayles were old and the language impossible. Vexing me much, tho I took no notice of it seeming; albeit it stucke in my sensitive stomach. I, who must forsooth earn an honest wage.

Abroad with my wife, poor wretch, who spoke in fyne friendliness on Elm-st west to John Kirkpatrick Brice. The sage and card-reader. Judge Holmes and Peter Hulsken, founder of a new Kenilworth court, waved us health. Dr. Olan Chenoweth, the eminent diagnostician, failed to catch my benign smile.

In the evening, dined on a soup, a beef roti, potatoes, corn and a salad. With a home-made light pudding for the sweet. Strolled towards the Club, up the avenue. Pretty, graceful Catharine Knisely playing on the club steps, the sweetest picture I ever did see. On the corner, John L. Sullivan, not the pugilist, but the versatile scrivener and political type writer. From St. Marys. B. Roush, the furniture king, buying a cigar, and page George Glover. There's twice that gas wagon with a sign reading "La Fenice" cigar has driven by. Now, if some one will name his "L Versus." Sam Weinfeld will get up tomorrow.

So, bowing to two different society beauties in their different motor coaches, home and to bed.

THE RED HOUSE MYSTERY

By A. A. MILNE

CHAPTER XVII

The inquest was at three o'clock; thereafter Antony could have no claim on the hospitality of the Red House. By ten o'clock his bag was packed, and waiting to be taken to the "George." To Bill, coming up stairs after a more prolonged breakfast, this early morning bustle was a little surprising.

"What's the hurry?" he asked. "None. But we don't want to come back here after the inquest. Get your packing over now and then we can have the morning to our selves."

"Righto." He turned to go to his room, and then came back again. "I say, are you going to tell Cayley that we're staying at the 'George'?" "You're not staying at the 'George,' Bill. Not officially. You're going back to London."

"Oh!" "Yes. Ask Cayley to have your luggage sent in to Stanton, ready for you when you catch a train there after the inquest. You can tell him that you've got to steady the Bishop of London at once. The fact that you are hurrying back to London to be confirmed will make it seem more natural that I should resume my interrupted solitude at the 'George' as soon as you have gone."

"Then where do I sleep tonight?" "Unofficially, in my bed, unless they've got another spare room at the 'George.' I've put your confirmation robe—I mean your pajamas and brushes and things—in my bag, ready for you. Is there anything else you want to know? No? Then go and pack. And meet me at ten-thirty beneath the blasted oak or in the hall or somewhere. I want to talk and talk and talk, and I must have my Watson."

"Good," said Bill, and went off to his room. An hour later they wandered out together into the park. "Well," said Bill, as they sat down underneath a convenient tree. "Talk away."

"I had many bright thoughts in my bath this morning," began Antony. "The brightest one of all was that we were being damn fools, and working at this thing from the wrong end altogether."

"Well, that's helpful." "If we had been professionals, I believe we should have gone at it from the other end. The Robert end. We've been wondering about Mark and Cayley all the time. Now let's wonder about Robert for a bit."

"We know so little about him." "Well, let's see what we do know. First of all, then, we know vaguely that he was a bad lot."

"And then we know rather a curious thing. We know that Mark told you all that this black sheep was coming. Now, why did he tell you?"

"Bill was thoughtful for a moment. 'I suppose,' he said slowly, 'that he knew we were bound to see him and thought that the best way was to be quite frank about him.'"

"But were you bound to see him? You were all away playing golf." "We were bound to see him if he stayed in the house that night."

"Very well, then. That's one thing we've discovered. Mark knew that there was no chance of getting Robert out of the house at once."

"Bill looked at his friend eagerly. 'Go on,' he said. 'This is getting interesting.'"

"He also knew something else," went on Antony. "He knew that Robert was bound to betray his real character to you as soon as you met him."

is that he told them the day before Robert's letter came. Robert came, and was killed, the day before yesterday—Tuesday. Mark told Mrs. Norbury about him on Monday. What do you make of that?"

"Coincidence," said Bill, after careful thought. "He'd always meant to tell her; his suit was prospering, and just before it was finally settled, he told her. That happened to be Monday. On Tuesday he got Robert's letter, and felt jolly glad that he'd told her in time."

"Well, it might be that, but it's rather a curious coincidence. And here is something which makes it very curious indeed. It only occurred to me in the bath this morning. Inspiring place, a bathroom. Well, it's this—he told her on Monday morning, on his way to Middleston in the car."

"Sorry, Tony; I'm dense this morning."

"In the car, Bill. And how near can the car get to Jallands?"

"Yes. And on his way to Middleston, Mark stops the car, walks six hundred yards down the hill to Jallands, says, 'Oh, by the way, Mrs. Norbury, I don't think I ever told you that I have a shady brother called Robert,' walks six hundred yards up the hill again, gets into the car, and goes off to Middleston. Is that likely?"

Bill frowned heavily. "Yes, but I don't see what you're getting at. Likely or not likely, we know he did it."

"Of course he did. All I mean is that he must have had some strong reason for telling Mrs. Norbury about him. And the reason I suggest is that he knew on that morning—Monday morning, not Tuesday—that Robert was coming to see him, and had to be in first with the news."

"But—but—" "And that would explain the other point—his instantaneous decision at breakfast to tell you about his brother. It wasn't instantaneous. He knew on Monday that Robert was coming, and decided then that you would all have to know."

"Then how do you explain the letter?" "Well, let's have a look at it."

Antony took the letter from his pocket and spread it out on the grass between them. "Mark, your loving brother is coming to see you tomorrow, all the way from Australia. I give you warning so that you will be able to conceal your surprise but not I hope your pleasure. Expect him at three or thereabouts."

"No date mentioned, you see," said Antony. "Just 'tomorrow.'"

"But he got this on Tuesday."

"Did he?" "Well, he read it out to us on Tuesday."

"Oh, yes! he read it out to you."

Bill read the letter again, and then turned it over and looked at the back of it. The back of it had nothing to say to him.

"What about the postmark?" he asked.

"We haven't got the envelope, unfortunately."

"And you think that he got this letter on Monday?"

"I'm inclined to think so, Bill. Anyhow, I think—I feel almost certain—that he knew on Monday that his brother was coming."

"Is that going to help us much?" "No. It makes it more difficult. There's something rather uncanny about it all. I don't understand it. He was silent for a little, and then added, 'I wonder if the inquest is going to help us.'"

"What about last night? I'm longing to hear what you make of that. Have you been thinking it out at all?"

Bill waited hopefully for him to explain. What, for instance, has Antony been looking for in the cupboard?

"I think," began Antony slowly, "that after last night we must give up the idea that Mark has been killed; killed, I mean, by Cayley. I don't believe anybody would go to so much trouble to hide a suit of clothes when he had a body on his hands. The body would seem so much more important. I think we may take it now that the clothes are all that Cayley had to hide."

"But why not have kept them in the passage?"

"He was frightened of the passage. Miss Norbury knew about it."

Bill said nothing for a little, and then with a sudden laugh confessed.

"It was so exciting yesterday," he said apologetically, "and we seemed to be just getting there, and discovering the most wonderful things, and now—"

"Well, it's so much ordinary."

Antony gave a shout of laughter. "Ordinary!" he cried. "Ordinary! Well, I'm dashed! Ordinary! If only one thing would happen in an ordinary way, we might do something, but everything is ridiculous."

Bill brightened up again. "Ridiculous? How?"

"Every way. Take those ridiculous clothes we found last night. You can explain the brown suit, but why the underclothes. You can explain the underclothes in some absurd way, if you like—you can say that Mark always changed his underclothes whenever he interviewed anybody from Australia—but why, in that case, my dear Watson, why didn't he change his collar?"

"His collar?" said Bill in amazement.

"His collar, Watson. There was no collar in the bag last night. Shirt, socks, tie—everything except a collar. Why?"

RUTH'S HOMERS GIVE YANKS ONE-GAME LEAD

BABE HITS
TWO

NEW YORK — The New York
Americans, carried to a 7 to 5
victory over Chicago by Babe Ruth's twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth home runs, today lead by a full game the St. Louis Browns who were idle Sunday.

Ruth is edging dangerously near the present homerun king, Ken Williams, who has 33. Rogers Hornsby has 29. With three-fourths of the season over the Babe's average is better than that of either Williams or Hornsby. He participated in only 75 games while Williams and Hornsby were in 118 each.

Ruth's home runs, especially the last four, have been blows of salvation for the Yankees.

The first of the four on last Friday, won a much needed game in the tenth inning and put the Yanks in a tie for first place. The second helped the Yanks to the victory that put them in undisputed possession of the leadership, and the third and fourth knocked out yesterday accounted for five runs. The fourth, coming in the ninth inning with two
on bases, won the game.

In his big league career Babe has knocked 188 home runs.

The Giants retained three and a half games margin over the Cardinals winning from the Cubs 5 to 4
by virtue of a seventh inning batting rally. Scott, the Giant pitcher weakened in the eighth, but young Claude Jonnard, who relieved him stunned the Cub assault.

REDS WIN TWO

Eight runs scored off three Philly pitchers in the seventh and eighth innings enabled the Cardinals to beat the Quakers 9 to 6. Cincinnati took two games from the Brooklyn club, pounding Grimes for 13 hits and ten runs in seven innings of the first game, winning 10 to 6, and winning the second 4 to 3, a pitching battle between Cadore and Rixey in ten innings.

Boone, a recruit, outpitched the veteran Walter Johnson and Speaker's club defeated Washington 3 to 0
in 12 innings.

Boone, whose first handle is Daniel won his own game in the 12th with a single. He is regarded as one of the season pitching finds. Cleveland secured him from the Southern association.

ALL RUNNERS
ON CARD

The first day of racing at the Allen race fair Tuesday will feature all runners. Seven events are listed, five for professionals and the other two for boys.

Entries began to pick up at a lively rate early Monday. Until Saturday there were only four runners quartered in the fair ground barns. The events tomorrow are as follows:

	PURSE
One-half mile dash .....	$75
Five-eighths mile dash .....	$100
One-half mile heats, 2 in 3....	$200
Three-fourths mile dash .....	$150
Allen co boys' pony race (run- ning), limit 44 inches high, $25.
Farmers' road race .....	$100

MARSHALLS LOSE

Loose playing on the part of his teammates kept Minor King from copping a pitchers' duel at North Baltimore for the Lima Marshalls.
King allowed but six hits and struck out 12. He had the game won 4 to 3 until the ninth inning, but the home boys scored a pair, winning 5 to 4.

Joe Pelligrini was the leading striker, getting three hits in five attempts. Score:
Marshalls 0 3 0 1 0 0 0 4 11 2
N. Balt. 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 5 6 1

ROWLANDS WIN

Lima Rowlands took a close game
at Findlay yesterday from the Differential Steels by the score of 16 to 14. Rex pitched a steady game for the locals and his battery mate, Shrider, was the hitting star of the contest, collecting a triple, two doubles and a single.

The team will meet at headquarters, St. Johns-av and Second-st, Tuesday night.

Mayor of Youngstown
Bans Boxing

YOUNGSTOWN — Mayor G. W.
Reese, who last week placed a ban on professional boxing as a result of alleged stalling in a bout last Wednesday night, Saturday after a conference with the boxing commissioner, lifted the ban, only to announce yesterday he had reconsidered and would not permit professional boxing.

BEN SHOWS 'EM
Benny Leonard, lightweight champ, is tired of being held up lightly as a business man instead of a real champion, and has gone out and beaten the best of 'em in less than two months.

TOO MUCH FOR HER
England feels she has reached a point of national disgrace in sports.
Loss of the British tennis championship, open golf title, rowing classic and international polo match were terrible blows.

TO BATTLE AGAIN
Another, and even greater battle between Mile. Suzanne Lenglen and Mrs. Mollie Mallory for the world's tennis championship will probably be staged in the United States next summer.

SHEET METALS COP
Pitching of "Jiggs" Surdam featured a 5 to 3 victory scored by the Lima Sheet Metals Products Company team at West Cairo. He struck out 13 batters and kept
West Cairo's few hits well scattered.
It was the last of a three-game series, the Metals taking two of the three.

Baltimore Orioles Become Too Good For International League; Will Be Sold

READING FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: TOP, THOMAS, OGDEN AND BISHOP. BOTTOM, BENTLEY, JACOBSON AND FRANK.

BALTIMORE — Three, maybe five, of these famous Baltimore Orioles are going up this fall. No wonder they smile.

Jack Dunn, Baltimore owner and manager, has done something that only one man before him ever did—he's developed a team, that's too strong for the company it's in.

The Orioles must be scrapped, but the scrapping will bring Dunn a handsome profit.

Against his own wishes, against the wishes of a lot of business men around the country, Dunn is being forced to dismantle the machine that won three straight pen-nants and at this moment of writing has a lead of more than 15 games in the race for the fourth straight flag.

Many years ago Connie Mack built a baseball machine that was too good for the big leaguers. Then he tore it down—from choice, not because of any ultimatum.

DUNN MUST SELL
Now Jack Dunn has been told by the other club owners in the International League that he must sell at least three of his stars this fall.

They threatened to put the draft back on the league if he refused. He submitted.

For two years nearly every big-league club has bidden for the star
Oriole players and Dunn laughed.

The Cincinnati Reds offered $60-000 for Jack Bentley. Dunn laughed.

The Giants offered $150,000 for three players—Bentley, Joe Boley and Jack Ogdan. Dunn laughed.

But now they're for sale.

Bentley and Boley—$100,000 each.
Max Bishop—$75,000.

Jack Ogdan and Merwin Jacobson—$60,000 each.

Tommy Thomas—$25,000.
Harry Frank—$25,000.

Dunn will sell three of the lot.
These are about the prices he expects.

MEN'S PAST WORK
Bentley is the majors' home-run king. He had 25 last year. Thus far this year he has 14, but like Ruth, he's slow starting. He is the best left-handed pitcher in the game.

When not pitching he plays first.
Boley is one of the best shortstops in baseball. He is young and has never had a major league trial. He is now hitting .398.

Bishop is a second baseman. He has just returned to the game after an injury. Last season he was the best second sacker in the league and hit .390.

Merwin Jacobson is the star of the outfield. For three seasons he has been up amongst the batting leaders.

Jack Ogdan is the best righthanders in the league. He won 22 games last year and in one winning streak made 18 in a row.

Harry Frank leads the league now.
He has won 13 and lost two.

Tommy Thomas is a youngster in the box. Veterans say he is the most promising of the three. He got in last start but is going great now. He has won 10 and lost but three.

LYNCH'S TENURE AS CHAMP DEPENDS ON HOW LONG HE CAN SAY NO

NEW YORK — Joe Lynch, the west side Irish boy of New York, is back on the bantamweight throne and he should remain there just as long as he elects.

In possession of almost a clear field, Lynch's reign looks to be limited only by the length of time he can be prevailed upon to say—"no."

If he chooses again to go the ways open for his money in New York he will be a short-lived champion.

Joe was champion once before,
but he had so many friends eager to show him a good time that he went along with them and did most of his training in Broadway clothes. He found out the truth of the old, old saying that it just can't be done.

Lynch has a bigger following than any boxer in New York. The neighborhood boys charter sight-seeing buses, hang Lynch banners on the side and go to his fights en masse.

They sit in the bleacher seats and root like college boys.

ARE ALSO IONIZED
If he is smart enough to decline
invitations to parties, his admirers will not be reduced by one. Benny Leonard and Jack Britton have large followings, but they stick close to home and they have not suffered declining respect or popularity.

After Johnny Buff had the title taken away from him by Lynch, he said he was thru with the bantamweight class, but that he would continue working with his American flyweight title.

Buff has stored away about $100-000 and he can earn enough among the fly weights to live comfortably without going down into the sock.

Pete Herman, former champion, is practically blind, as he is almost blind in the one eye and has passed the peak. Edged Smith, the New Yorker, is not in the same class with Lynch, Frankie Jerome, Abe Goldstein and the other contenders are also out of the reckoning.

TWO GOOD BETS
Two Westerners are the only ones who look to have a chance against Lynch—Joe Burman and Sammy Mandell, both of Chicago.

Burman is more or less of a veteran in the class and he is well known, but it is only in the last year that Mandell has come forward with a rush.

Western writers have been saying nice things about Mandell for six months but it was only recently,
when he whipped Pat Moore, in Memphis, that he sprung up as a real contender.

You can count on your fingers, the boys who have beaten Moore and when Mandell can turn the trick, he must be good.

INDEPENDENTS TRIM
OTTAWA, 4 TO 0

ONE inning was all required yesterday by the Independents to pile up enough runs to defeat Ottawa. They broke up a pitching duel between Earl Berry and Schultz in the sixth frame by bunting four hits with two errors, giving them a 4 to 0 win.

Each team had but one hit to its credit until the sixth. Berry and Schultz were waving batsmen to the bench with monotonous regularity, but the difference between their performances was that Berry's perfor-
